Developers can make money by selling things like items, cosmetics, or avatars (often in their own in-game stores similar to those in mobile apps) in exchange for Roblox's in-app currency, Robux. And it seems like some of the most successful games can pay out nicely, once they've reached critical mass. It's a good way to spark creativity and make a little bit of spending currency on the side, too. If you make a particularly popular design the Robux will start to flow in before you know it.

I even found a clone of Counter-Strike called Counter Blox.
